F&J PUBLICATIONS, LLC

WWW.CCR-MAG.COM

When you need to know — CCR has you covered.

In a time of unprecedented industry change, it is important to have a resource committed to keeping you informed at each and every turn. As one of the commercial construction industry's most reliable content providers, we continue to deliver the content you need to stay on top of industry trends, challenges and expectations.

For the past 20-plus years, Commercial Construction & Renovation (CCR) has been the source industry professionals turn to when they need information, data and networking engagements.

CCR publishes 12 digital online issues, along with our email newsletters, podcasts, social media presence, as well as our vaunted line up of conferences and networking events.

In addition, we are adding several new features, including a special quarterly supplement highlighting women in the construction industry, our Global Women in Construction quarterly events, and much more.

See how you can make CCR part of your industry presence.

The CCR Mission

Commercial Construction & Renovation (CCR) helps our subscribers design, build and maintain better commercial facilities by delivering content to meet the information needs of today's high level executives. Our content spans the design, construction and facilities operations of major commercial construction segments—retail, hospitality, restaurants and other commercial sectors. On the pages of our magazine, you will find information relevant to the collaborative management process required to complete projects on time and on budget, and to efficiently manage these facilities.

The CCR Content

When commercial construction professionals need to know about the people, products and trends driving the industry forward, Commercial Construction & Renovation is the source they can count on. Our monthly magazine (now digital only) provides an inside glimpse at the stories behind the trends. Our stable of resources include our weekly e-newsletter and podcast, as well as daily social insights.

The CCR Mobile App

In today's digitally driven mobile age, our CCR App gives commercial construction experts everything they need at their fingertips—the ideal complement to our CCR Buyer's Guide.

The CCR Digital Buyer's Guide

Introduced last year, the CCR Digital Buyer's Guide has become an integral resource for today's commercial construction professional, featuring specific industry sections spotlighting the categories, vendors, and contact information and contact person at each company.

The CCCT Podcast

If you have not listened to the Commercial Construction & Renovation Coffee Talk (CCT) podcast, you don't know what you're missing. Hosted by longtime industry veteran and CCR Publisher David Corson, CCT's engaging, informative and always entertaining format features conversations with some of the industry's leading vendors and end users. You can catch the podcast on Apple and Google Podcasts, and Spotify.
